

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A “cocktail” combination of two monoclonal antibodies respectively acting on different sites of the platelet GPIIb-IIIa complex has been disclosed. This “cocktail” combination can completely block receptor function of the GPIIb-IIIa complex, inhibit platelet aggregation and thereby efficiently inhibit thrombosis.